SUMMARY

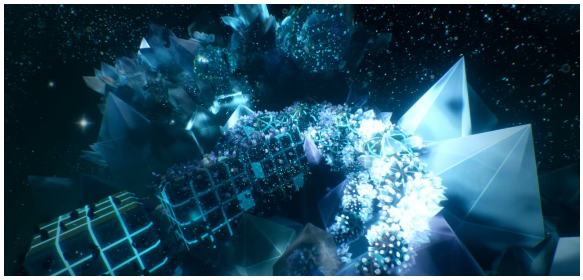

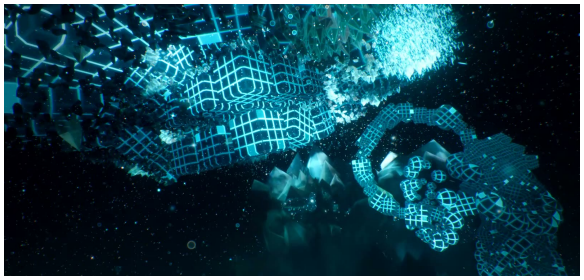

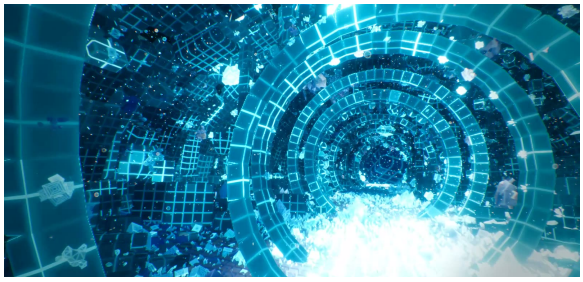

The light is never still: areas breathe slowly or quickly, broad bands of light move across the land and through the dark fields, and in every crystal light rises from the base to the tip.

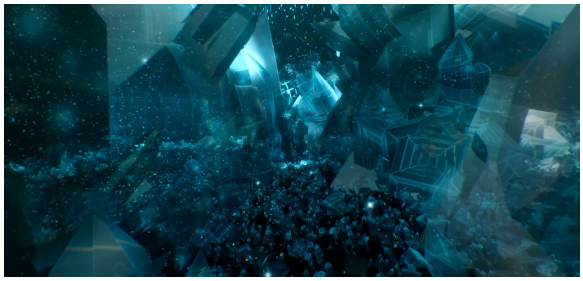

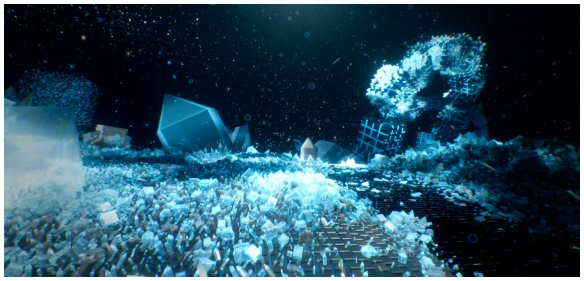

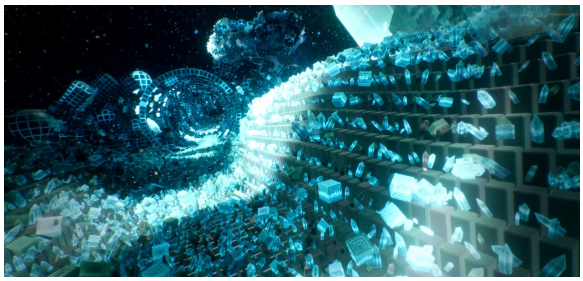

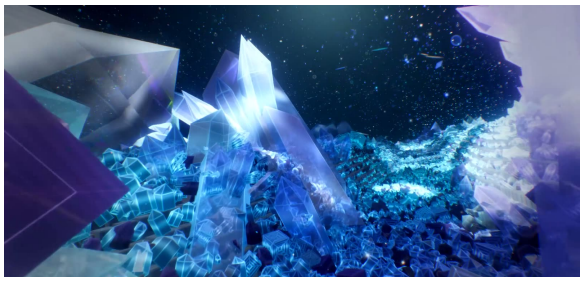

BACKGROUND

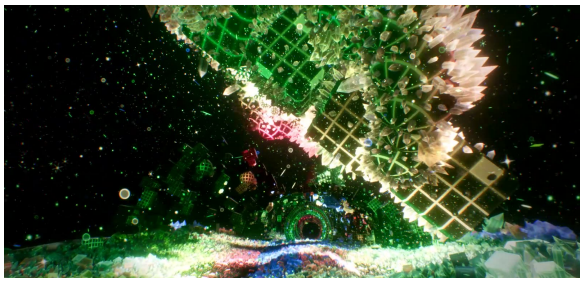

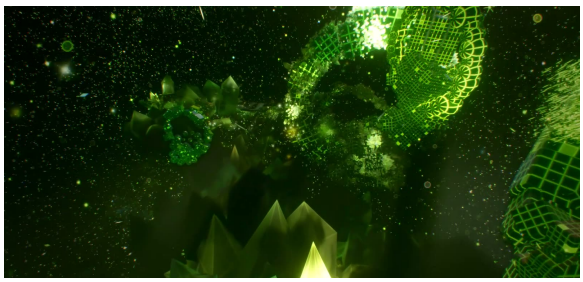

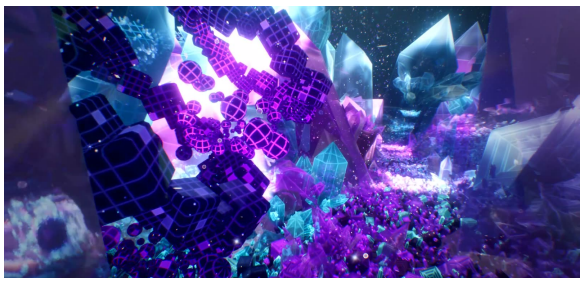

This work belongs to the Art World Crystal series: Art World, crystallised – an endless flight through a world of crystal, glass and light, without plants, with overgrown sculptures of the Sculpt series in its midst. The series is described under “Art World Crystal – Kristallwald”, its first work.
