ART WORLD SCULPT – RINGTUNNEL

Through rotating rings

SUMMARY

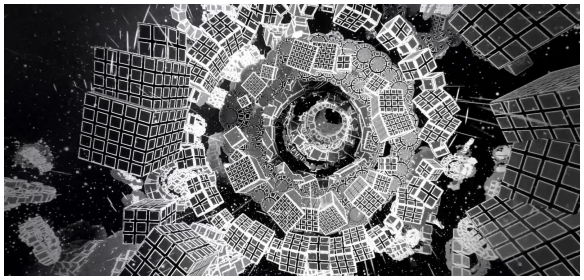

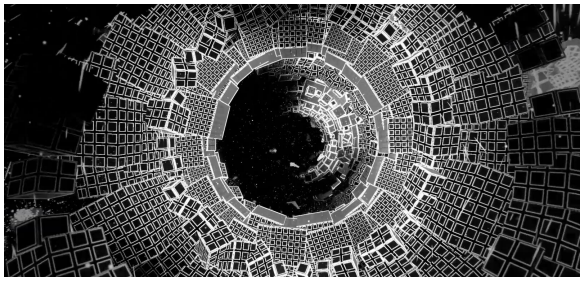

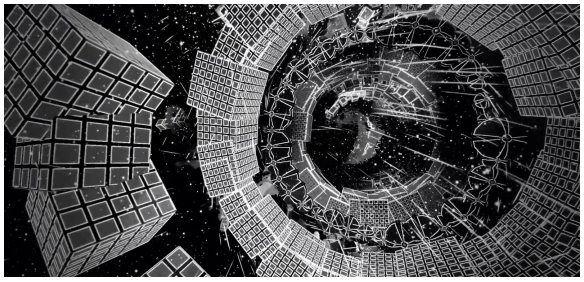

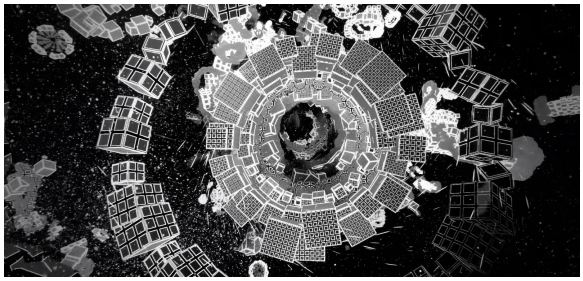

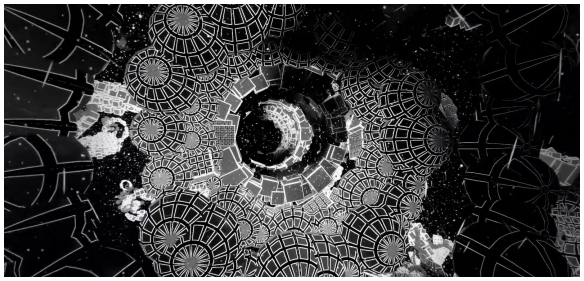

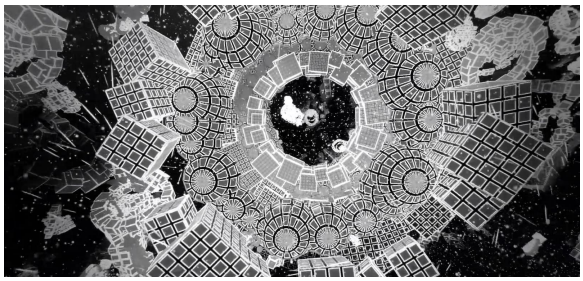

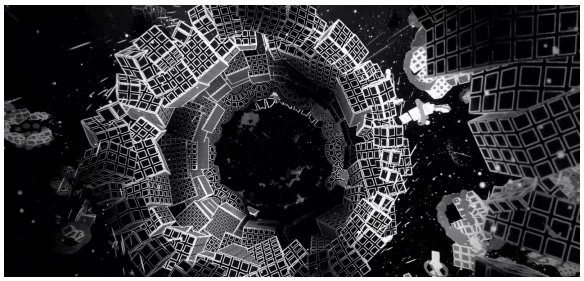

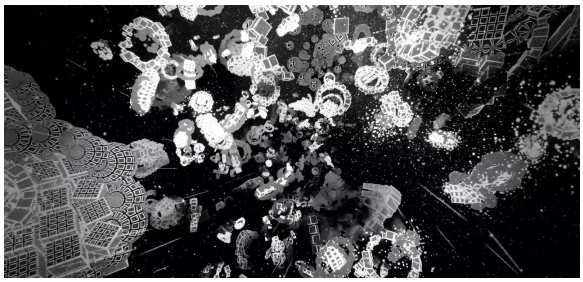

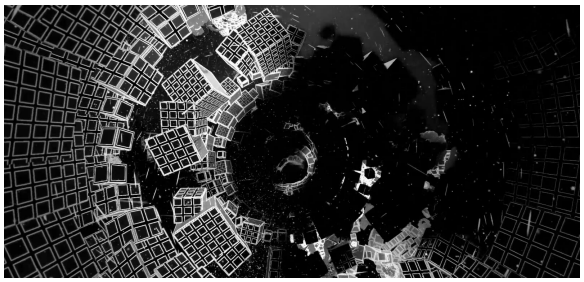

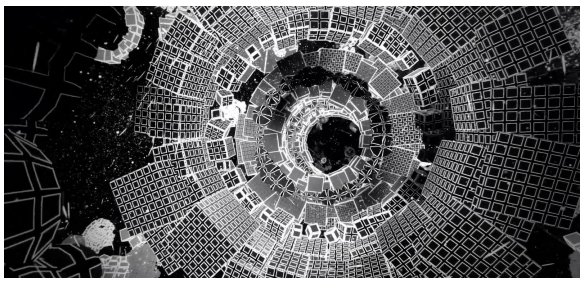

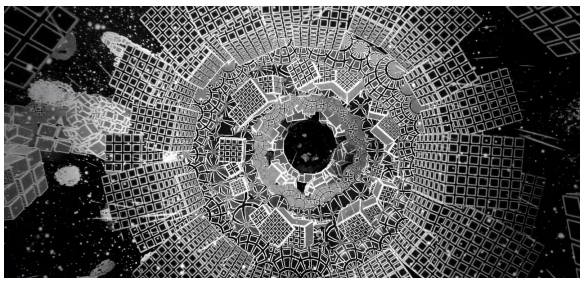

The rings of the sculptures become a tunnel: rings of cubes rotate against one another, and the flight winds its way in and back out into the field.

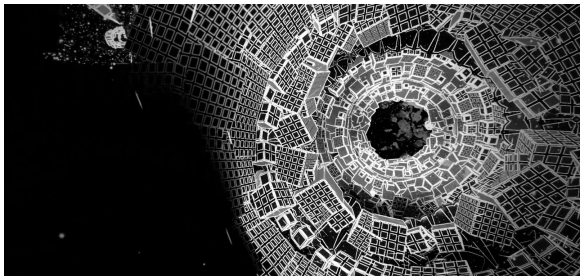

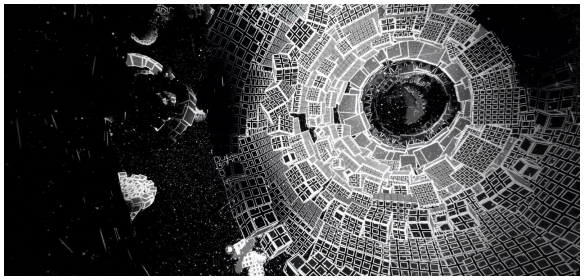

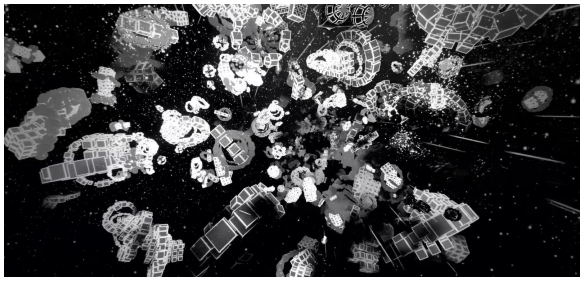

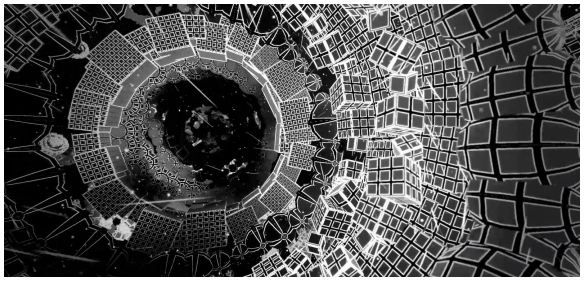

BACKGROUND

This work belongs to the Art World Sculpt series, the flight through the world of the Sculpt series: only sculptures, no ground, no nature, black and white. The series is described under “Art World Sculpt – Skulpturenfeld”, its first work.
